Donations For Animals DOUBLE When San Diego Gives Each dollar is matched up to $50K on special community day of giving Sept. 7, 2023

SAN DIEGO — The community has a special opportunity to double the impact for animals who need a second chance when San Diego Humane Society joins forces with San Diego Gives on Thursday, Sept. 7, 2023. Thanks to the generosity of The JEM Project, each dollar donated to San Diego Humane Society will be matched up to $50,000. Donations can be made at sdhumane.org/sdgives.

San Diego Gives is a 24-hour fundraising campaign, focusing on investing in our community by supporting local nonprofits. San Diego Humane Society is participating to help sustain its lifesaving work for more than 40,000 animals this year alone.

Each dollar donated to San Diego Humane Society will help:

- Provide safe shelter for homeless animals.
- Perform lifesaving veterinary care for pets and wildlife.
- Rescue animals from cruelty, neglect and emergencies.
- Offer free and low-cost services for pet owners who need extra support.
- Ensure San Diego County “Stays at Zero” euthanasia of healthy or treatable shelter animals.

“We are here for every animal who needs our help, but we rely on our community’s support to do the work,” said San Diego Humane Society Executive Vice President Brian Daugherty. “With record numbers of animals in care at any given moment, this has been the toughest year so far in our organization’s history. That’s why the San Diego Gives effort is especially important for us.”
