Join San Diego Humane Society at the Walk for Animals — San Diego!

Early bird pricing ends on March 31 for event at Liberty Station on Saturday, May 7, 2022!

SAN DIEGO — San Diego Humane Society is inviting pet lovers to participate in its Walk for Animals — San Diego at NTC Park in Liberty Station on May 7, 2022. The festive event, which is one of the organization’s largest annual fundraisers, is back in person this year for those who would like to join and walk with their four-legged friends! You can also support the event from the comfort of home, by walking in your own neighborhood and by fundraising online!

Early bird pricing is available for those who sign up at sdwalkforanimals.org before Thursday, March 31, 2022:

Adults (ages 18+)

Early Bird: $20
April 1 through May 6: $30
Event Day: $40

Children (ages 17 and under)

Early Bird: $10
April 1 through May 6: $15
Event Day: $20

“The Walk for Animals — San Diego is by far the biggest event we host each year and we are so excited to walk together again in person after cancellations in 2020 and 2021,” said Dr. Gary Weitzman, president and CEO, San Diego Humane Society. “In the coming year, we will care for more than 40,000 animals in need! By joining the Walk for Animals, you’ll help give each one the second chance they deserve.”

The morning festivities begin at 7 a.m. on May 7, 2022 and will include a delicious pancake breakfast, a warm-up and stretch, a scenic two-mile walk or a half-mile short route option, fun-filled doggie activities, live music and an array of vendor booths. Register now at sdwalkforanimals.org. For vendor or sponsorship opportunities, contact walk@sdhumane.org!
