San Diego Humane Society Hosts Child-Friendly Halloween Event
Reverse Trick-or-Treat is fun for kids and benefits adoptable animals, too!

What:   Reverse Trick-or-Treat

Parents looking for a safe, child-friendly Halloween event can bring their children to San Diego Humane Society's Reverse Trick-or-Treat. During the spook-tacular Halloween event, children of all ages will make special treats for our adoptable animals and then "Reverse Trick-or-Treat" through the adoption gallery to deliver their treats. Kids also will visit with costumed canine ambassadors, play games and create Halloween-themed crafts. Tickets are $5 per child 3 years and up. Children 2 years and under are free. Purchase tickets and register here.

When:   Wednesday, Oct. 30, from 4 - 6 p.m.

Where:   San Diego Humane Society
   5500 Gaines St., San Diego, 92110

Visuals:
- Children in costumes making animal treats and delivering them to adoptable animals
- Children and their parents participating in Halloween-themed crafts and games
- Dogs dressed in Halloween costumes
